

It was my honor to reintroduce Thurston to a new generation of magicians. But Roy Feldman, William Rauscher and a cast of magic luminaries have given us something I once thought was impossible -- the experience of actually seeing, knowing, and hearing Howard Thurston. This is a fascinating DVD, and amazing history for every magician.

- Jim Steinmeyer, author of The Last Greatest Magician in the World

We are always buying Thurston material and entire magic collections for future projects. Please email us at: RoyFeldmanMagic@aol.com if you have items for sale.
